vation that the operators could not legally participate in a coal price fixing agreement unless it were provided that such an agreement would expire with the Lever food and fuel control act.

The operators, Crews added, considered that the commission's award "of itself," would constitute a binding and final wage agreement between miners and employers. President Robinson of the commission immediately pointed out that President Wilson's letter creating the commission empowered it only to make an award which would "serve as a basis upon which a new wage agreement can be made."

Mr. Crews agreed to accept for the operators whatever construction the commission chose to place on the words and to waive the receipt of answers to a series of ten questions which the operators yesterday submitted to the commission.

President Robinson announced that the commission would sit each day, would allow cross examination of all persons appearing before it, and would accept arguments or briefs, not only from the miners and operators, but also from others interested.

The miners presented a number of complaints with reference to the 14 per cent increase granted to the men on returning to work.

SENATE CHIEFS GET TOGETHER

sent and that there was being evinced a "general desire" to dispose of the treaty promptly so as to avert its injection into the elections. Republicans and Democrats in the senate, he said, now are attempting "to reach a common ground" with that end in view.

Calling at the office of Senator Hitchcock, the delegation was told by the acting Democratic leader and by Senator Smith, Democrat of Georgia, of the efforts being made on the Democratic side of the chamber to bring about prompt ratification.

In their conferences with the early ratification advocates, neither Senators Lodge nor Hitchcock indicated any change in the positions they have taken recently. Their callers, however, said they had been encouraged by the assurances from both senators that a real effort to compose the senate dispute over reservations was being made. The ratification delegations submitted to Senators Lodge and Hitchcock and sent to President Wilson what their spokesmen termed a "manifesto" urging immediate ratification.

"We urge immediate ratification," the petition recites, "with such reservations as may secure in the senate the necessary two-thirds, even though this may require from the treaty making powers the same spirit of self-denying sacrifice which won the war. The world should not wait for America to conclude peace."

Both Senator Lodge and Senator Hitchcock in their statements told the delegation that concessions must be made in the controversy.

Senator Lodge said: "I think there is a very general desire to avoid delay which would necessarily ensue from submitting the whole question to the election in November. I can only repeat that those who formulated the reservations which were adopted by a majority of the senate will be very glad indeed to consider any modifications proposed and then decide what we can accept and what cannot be accepted and try to reach a common ground. Efforts are being made in that direction on both sides of the chamber today."

"All realize that reservations are inevitable. The president has stated that he would accept interpretative reservations and an effort now is being made to reach an agreement. Conferences are occurring every day and almost every night, not only conferences between Democrats and conferences between Republicans, but conferences attended by both Democrats and Republicans. The difficulties are serious, not only because many reservations must be considered and many individual opinions harmonized, but because the objection must always be kept in mind of so framing the reservations that they may meet the acceptance of the president."

CENSUS "HUNT" IS ON

We have with us today, the census man—or, in many cases, the census lady. This is one time when you're supposed to tell your right name. The young lady in the above picture is one of Uncle Sam's census agents and she's getting the full dope on the whole family from the lady of the house.

HOUSE ROUSED BY WAR AWARDS

chief of staff, and other officers assigned to duty in Washington during the war. The chief of staff and other officers attacked were defended by other members.

"The house ought not to acquiesce in the attack on General March and other officers of the army," declared Representative Moore, Democrat, Virginia, concluding the debate with an appeal for rejection of the resolution, which, on a roll call, was adopted, 183 to 123. Most of the Democrats opposed it.

Representative Gallivan urged an adoption of this measure as the start of a general congressional investigation into the awards of war honors; declaring that proportionately more officers in Washington received distinguished service medals than those in the front lines. The services of all "lounge lizards of the second army of Potomac" were recognized with decorations, Gallivan charged, including former chiefs of staff, who, he said, were removed for inefficiency.

General March was referred to by Gallivan, as "the high priest of Prussianism," and the "man for whom no officer ever speaks a word except contempt," adding that his citation for the distinguished service medal would have been written only "under orders."

Several other members lauded the chief of staff for his fairness and efficiency, declaring he was entitled to any honors conferred on him.

FOREMAN TO LECTURE

A talk on "Horizontal and Inclined Top-Slicing" will be given today by J. W. Scott, foreman of the Czar shaft, at the Y. M. C. A. at 1 o'clock in the afternoon and at 7 o'clock in the evening, to the class that is taking the practical mining course. The speaker will describe in detail the various methods of taking out ore in the Copper Queen properties.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13.—Maj. Nestor Enciso de Arce and Antonio Trillo, Mexican rebels, who were captured, tried by court-martial and sentenced to death with Gen. Felipe Angeles, but who, unlike Angeles, obtained a commutation, have been released by order of the Mexican federal district court at Juarez, according to advices received today in Washington.

Backache Is Discouraging

But Not So Bad If You Know How to Reach the Cause.

Nothing more discouraging than a constant backache. Lame when you awaken, pains pierce you when you bend or lift. It's hard to work or to rest. Backache often indicates bad kidneys. Bisbee people recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. Read this case: Mrs. John Kopp, Youngblood Hill, Bisbee, says: "After I had the grip, my kidneys were weak and I felt miserable. The bladder disorder was most annoying. I thought my back would never stop aching and I felt rundown and always had a tired, worn out feeling. When I stopped I became dizzy and my sight was blurred. Two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills cured me and the cure has lasted since that time."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Kopp had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

WOMEN OF WEST MAKE DEMANDS

night at a banquet table to talk over what had been accomplished.

The women of the six western states represented adopted resolutions asking the following twelve planks be incorporated in the platform:

National and state child labor legislation; legislation establishing an eight-hour maximum day, a forty-four hour week and a weekly day of rest for women in industry; establishment of the women's bureau of the United States department of labor on a permanent statutory basis; equal pay for equal service; appointment of both men and women on federal mediation and wage adjustment boards to deal with industries employing women; establishment of a national employment service with adequate provision for women; direct citizenship for women, not citizenship through marriage, as a qualification for the vote; naturalization for married women made possible; a new policy by the federal board for vocational education to insure women equal opportunities with men in trade and technical education; compulsory education in every state for children between 6 and 18 years of age for 36 weeks annually; full support to secure a federal department of education whose secretary shall be a member of the president's cabinet; national minimum wage legislation for women.

National Chairman Hays in his address at the banquet declared that in the campaign to come, strict standards of morals, equity and justice would govern the Republican party.

Those at the speakers' table included National Committeeman Allan B. Jaynes of Arizona and Albert Sames, state chairman of Arizona.

FIND MURDERED GIRL.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Jan. 13.—Motives for the murder of Rebecca Lovall, 21, whose body was found today in a Louisville public park with the head partly severed from the body, had not been determined tonight. Authorities, however, were said to be seeking a sweetheart of the girl in an effort to clear up the second Louisville woman murder mystery within a month. An axe, hatchet or butcher knife, was used in the killing, the coroner said.
